

Winter 2019

New Year, New Ideas!

It's hard to believe that Christmas and New Years have passed already! I hope you all enjoyed time with those you love. Winter has really set in and a lot of us are getting down to some serious creating. We've also been very busy here at Mary Maxim, getting ready for another season of exciting crafting. Our teachers are preparing their classes and it looks as if we're going to have a great variety. Our class schedule should be all ready by the end of February so check back soon for all the details or drop by our Paris store to pick up a brochure.

We also have a great lineup of promotional events to bring you savings throughout the rest of the winter. Make sure you sign up to get all the great deals sent to your email. Just click on Sign Me Up section at the bottom right of our Home page.

As always, our buyers are busy seeking out the latest and greatest in knitting, crocheting, quilting, stitching and crafting.

We're excited to let you know that we have recently expanded our Gift Department! Along with our unique gift items, we've also added to our line of fabulous fashion wear, shawls, fashion tops, jackets and a beautiful selection of Anushka handbags, wallets, umbrellas & shoes. We're also looking forward to Springtime and will be featuring all things "garden", coming very soon!

Speaking of Springtime, here's a heads up and "Save the Date"! We'll be having a Spring TENT SALE in MAY!!! It'll run from May 2-20 and promises to have loads of goodies and fantastic savings for all your crafting needs and wants.

So you see, we're always planning ahead to make your shopping experience the best it can be.

See you in our stores soon and Happy Creating!
